International shower climbing in Nanayama

The annual international waterfall climb is an opportunity for you to enjoy the beautiful natural surroundings of Nanayama village as you swim, walk, and climb your way through and up the mountain stream to its top near the base of the waterfall. It is hoped that you will thoroughly enjoy this event as you exercise both your individual perseverance and your helpfulness to your fellow climbers as you all work to conquer the mountain stream and waterfall together. Please join with the many other Japanese and non-Japanese people participating in this event. Let's make wonderful memories of Japan!

Date: August 19, 2007

Place: Nanayama area of Karatsu city, Saga Prefecture, Takigawa, Narukami sports ground

Fee: Non-Japanese are to pay ¥ 1000.

*All people who join without invitations (both Japanese and non-Japanese) are to pay ¥3000.

Transportation: Return transportation by bus available from Saga City to Nanayama.

Bus departure from the International Exchange Meeting Hall: 7:50 a.m.

Bus departure from the north mouth of the Saga station: 8:10 a.m.

Suggested clothing: Comfortable clothing should be worn by participants. Participants might want to consider wearing clothing that covers their legs in order to prevent minor scratches and abrasions that might occur during the climb. Clothing that covers enough of the torso to prevent sun burn might also be desirable. As it is possible for clothing to be damaged during the climb, participants are encouraged to avoid any clothing that is particularly valuable to them. Solid sports shoes that completely cover the feet and provide for good traction are also desirable. Participants should also be aware of sunglasses and other such apparel being lost or broken during the climb.

Sponsor: Executive of an international shower climbing

How to enter: Fill out the application form and send it by fax to the Nanayama Village office at the following number: FAX 0955-58-3034

Entry deadline: July 31, 2007. Please note that there will be a limit of 100 non-Japanese applicants accepted for this event. Applications will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis. Please send your application in as soon as possible.
